

Disciple Bible Studies

This exciting and dynamic approach to Bible study created by the United Methodist Church focuses on the disciple as a learner, believer, follower, proclaimer and servant.

The purpose of Disciple may best be expressed in the words of John 8:31- If you make my Word your home, you will be my disciples.

Disciple I - A 34-week study using one theme each week to organize study and reflection. 17 weeks of Old Testament and 17 weeks of New Testament. Offered Sunday afternoon with Rev. Ron Preuss, Tuesday evening with Rev. John Cromartie, and Wednesday morning with Rev. Rebecca Herring. No prerequisite required. $36

Disciple IV - A 32-week study concentrating on the writings of the Old Testament prophets and on the Gospel letters of John and Revelation. Offered Sunday evening with Steve Bishop and Tuesday evening with Merv Burns. Completion of Disciple I is required to take this class. $36

What is Expected of Participants?

- * Sign up in order to insure a slot
- * Space is limited
- * Time required ranges from 30 minutes to one hour of study 6 days each week, primarily reading of the Bible plus a small amount from a Study Manual
- * Attendance at and participation in weekly sessions
- * Pray daily for members of your group
- * Encourage and support others who are interested in Bible Study

For information about specific times and to enroll, call Laurie Hintz at 770-887-2900 ext. 213 or via lhintz@cfumcga.com